

This comment is regarding banks wanting to be exempt from the do-call list. I think it is time for all the governing bodies to listen to the people, we do not want the banks calling any more than we want window sales people, no matter what time. It would be another invasion of our privacy. Respectfully Kenneth W Buchanan